

STARTING KINDY

FOR PARENTS

This book has been produced with input from parents, children and educators to support children's transition to Kindergarten.

Starting Kindy is an important time for parents and children.

We hope that this book will familiarise your child with Kindy and help them feel at home in their new learning environment.

Share this book a few times with your child in the lead up to starting Kindy.

My name is Archie. I'm 4 years old and today is my first day at Kindy. I wonder if I will meet a new friend.

I'm Annabel. I'm 3 years old and I'm starting Kindy too. I'm excited and a bit nervous.

When I get to Kindy, I put my bag on a shelf, lunch in the trolley and afternoon snack in the box.

My morning snack and water bottle stay with my bag.

I find my name rock while mum/dad signs the roll.

I see someone I know from Kinderygm - it's Archie!

The educators are called Victoria, Amie and Santa.

They are here to help us with our learning and make
Kindy a fun and safe place for everyone to play.

I find my Learning Folder, which will include stories, photos and pictures about my learning.

There are lots of things to discover at Kindy. I can be a curious learner.

Inside, I like to paint, make books, pretend and solve puzzles. Sometimes I work with the playdough or design and build with the blocks.

INSIDE PLAY!

OUTSIDE PLAY!

Outside, there is a big garden for exploring. I like to climb on the logs and rocks, build in the sandpit, feed the chickens and be an inventor in the mud lab.

GROUP TIME

During the day we have gathering times when we sing songs, listen to stories and talk about our learning.

Just before lunch time, we wash our hands in the bathroom.

The toilets at Kindy are child size - just perfect for us!

Then we sit together to eat our lunch.

LUNCH - YUM!

It's been a busy day of discovering at Kindy,
I'm getting tired and it's time to go home.
But first, we need to pack up.

Then, my Mum or Dad will be here to collect me.

I had fun playing with new friends and I can't wait to come back for another great day.
